A Legend in Time by Jonathan Westbrook

A Legend in Time* is a mythic fiction loosely based on the legend of Lake Pocotopaug. It combines action-packed adventure with the romantic allure of a Native American legend that will entertain both male and female alike; ages: young-adult to adult.

Bio: Jonathan Westbrook was born in Connecticut, home to the legend of Lake Pocotopaug, in East Hampton, CT. in October of 1964, the youngest of four to Warren and Patricia.

A Legend in Time is his first novel. When he was a young boy, fishing with his dad in a small aluminum boat, his father told him that the Princess of Lake Pocotopaug had committed suicide by leaping off of a cliff to the rocky shore below, but he never told him why. Years later Jonathan questioned, why did she die in such an awful way? What if he visited her in the past to find out? What if he were the cause of her demise? From those questions and more this novel emerged and the world of James Sutherland was born.
